"Once more Dear Friends" we must realize that winter is upon us.

When you ponder over this, don't forget that we are literally packed with raiment for human beings.

We have extra inducements to offer you in each department. We own our goods this fall lower than ever before.

We have a specially nice line of clothing.

We have the latest in stiff hats, and the finest in the world.

A full line of winter underware for ladies and gentlemen.

An immense line of shoes, at prices that knocks them all out, don't fail to see them.

We have goods for the most fastidious and also for those who want lots of good warm garments for a little money.

Yours truly,
R. M. WRIGHT & Co.

The republicans have produced their chief speakers in the state and we must say they have got a very poor crop of them. We venture to say that Col. T. S. Jones can eclipse them all, and it was a good idea of the republicans when they refused to have any joint debates, as the Colonel would certainly wind them up in short order.

Mr. J. E. Lanonette, who has been in charge of our signal service office here for the past five years, has been ordered to Fort Grant, Arizona, and the agent there has been transferred to this place. Mr. Lanonette is one of our leading citizens in society, and his large number of friends will regret to hear that he must leave them, as he was one of their chief leaders in all society events.

Cleveland and Thurman Club.

A large and appreciative audience were in attendance at the meeting of the club on last Saturday evening, and after the regular routine of business had been gone through with, Mr. C. G. Messerley, of Ford City, was introduced by Col. T. S. Jones. Mr. Messerley spoke for over an hour upon the tariff question, and in his speech presented many convincing facts why the laboring man and farmer should vote for Cleveland and the reduction of the tariff. After Mr. Messerley had concluded, Col. Jones was called upon, who stepped forward and delivered a stirring address on the political questions of the day. Col. Jones was followed by J. M. Lloyd, who made a short speech on the great tariff question.

Over thirty new members joined the club, and the list now numbers 175 members. The club after dispensing with some minor business matters adjourned to meet at the democratic headquarters, on Friday, Oct. 5th promptly at 1 o'clock.

Card of Thanks.

We hereby wish to make grateful acknowledgment for the great kindness shown us by the people of Dodge City and vicinity in the midst of the sorrows and anguish falling to our lot in the sudden death of our son Charles. We cherish in grateful memory the earnest endeavors of Mr. Lawson and others laboring on the college building, and of all others, to save the life of Charlie, and then the words of kindest sympathy and deeds of kindness with which all sought to lighten the burden of our grief. God bless one and all of you, and give you richly of His grace. B. F. POWELLSON.

Vice President, Mrs. Sara Stranght.
Rec. Secretary, Mrs. Emily Cherington.
Treasurer, Mrs. Maggie Shaw.
Cor. Secretary, Mrs. Mary A. Rapp.

The W. C. T. U. will meet October 11, at the residence of Mrs. Emily Cherington. It is hoped this session will be well attended as we have important business to transact. Application for help among the needy of our city, has already been sent in. Let us "make hay while the sun shines," and be prepared for the coming winter.

Miss Willard writes, we are all decorated with the "white rose" at Rest Cottage; my dear old mother even being scrupulously careful to keep it in the midst of her white ribbon.

When the True Blue Cadets of the W. C. T. U. shall again assemble, one of our number will be missing. We shall never again hear the voice of Charlie Powelson pleading for the advancement of the cause to which we are pledged.

Dear boyish head laid down to rest, With life's sweet service scarce begun. Dear eager heart, to quiet hushed With all its purpose left undone.

Taken while blinding tears our eyes So fill, we scarce can see His hand. Taken in such a way, that faith Waits, in the dark, to understand.

What can we say? Oh Christ, we know Thou knowest why and how and when. We know Thy love is strong to bring Thy cherished purposes to men.

Resolutions.

WHEREAS, In the purposes of an All-wise Heavenly Father, which purposes we understand not now, but shall know hereafter, our school-mate, Charles Austen in Powelson has been taken from this Sabbath-school to the joyous choir of Heaven, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we will meekly bow to our Father's will, being fully assured that He doeth all things well, and that our loss is our young friends infinite gain.

RESOLVED, That we appreciate and remember and profit by the virtues and christian character of him we have lost, and extend to his bereaved family our kindest and fullest sympathy, mutual love and condolence.

RESOLVED, That these sentiments be inscribed in our records as a school, furnish to the friends whom we would comfort, and to the papers of our city.

C. M., Sec'y.

Parties who promised rock on subscription for the TIMES will please deliver the rock at once. Report at this office.
